Joint Investigative Task Force announces reward

CAMP BONDSTEEL – The Joint Investigative Task Force is offering a 2500 Euro reward for any information leading to the arrest and conviction of the perpetrators of the Klokot explosions of 31 July. These criminal acts go against the very fabric of the progress here in Kosovo. UNMIK Police, KPS and KFOR ask that the citizens of Kosovo reject this kind of behavior and assist in bringing these criminals to justice.

The phone number for reporting information to the Joint Investigate Task Force is 0280-24321 from cell phones and 24321 from PTK lines. Any persons wishing to will remain anonymous. Citizens can also pass on information to any KPS, CIVPOL or KFOR element in their area.
