Contract guard dies of heart attack in Kosovo

HEIDELBERG, Germany – A 40-year-old contractor providing force protection service at Camp Bondsteel died June 23 after suffering a heart attack.

Danile Wayne Luckie, a retired master sergeant, was working as a contractor for ITT Industries in Kosovo. He was taken to the Camp Bondsteel Hospital, where efforts to revive him were unsuccessful. He was pronounced dead by military medical officials.

ITT Industries has held the contract to provide protective services in Kosovo since May 2003.
