Change of Command Ceremony at Greek Camp

Camp Rigas Fereos, Kosovo – The new Commander of the Hellenic Tactical Command based at Camp Rigas Fereos was presented to the members of the 525th Mechanized Infantry Battalion here Monday. The battalion said farewell to Col. Antonio Karagiorgo, who has held the position for 11 months, as they welcomed his replacement Col. Christiforo Terzidi. Karagiorgo will redeploy to Athens, where he said he would use the lessons he learned in Kosovo.

“The experiences I gained here are many and useful,” said Karagiorgo.

“I and my staff are going to continue the work of our predecessors, and raise the level of success even higher,” Terzidi said in an address to the invited guests, which included Adem Salihaj, the Municipal President of Ferezaj/Urosevac. In addition to the formal transfer of authority, the event gave Terzidi and Salihaj the chance to meet and discuss security issues of Ferezaj/Urosevac.

“I met the new commander at his office today,” said Salihaj. “We will continue cooperating and we’ll give our best efforts to keep the situation normal in Ferezaj.”
